

G.O.T. Preparedness® User Guide

- 1) Your company's administrator will activate your seat for the G.O.T. Preparedness® online training. This e-mail to login the first time will come from gotpreparedness.com with the subject line "GotPreparedness.com Training Invitation."
- 2) Once you click on the link to activate your seat, you will set up your unique username and password. The username and password that you create is non-transferrable.

- 3) Once you activate your seat, you will click the "Login" button in the upper right-hand corner to sign-in to the training. If you forget your username or password at any time, you can click on the "Forgot your Login?" button at the bottom of the Sign In screen to reset your username or password.

- 4) Once you are signed in, you will click on the “Training” button located towards the top of your screen to access the online training courses.

Click the “Select” button underneath the title of the course that you have been assigned in order to begin training.

A course card for "ACTIVE THREAT" (Active Threat Readiness Training). The card features a dark blue header with the text "ATR" in large, metallic letters and "ACTIVE THREAT READINESS TRAINING" below it. The main content area is white and includes the title "ACTIVE THREAT", followed by three icons and their corresponding details: a book icon for "4 Modules", an hourglass icon for "DURATION: 1 Hour", and a book icon for "Module 1: Passed". A descriptive paragraph states: "This course is designed to understand the nature of threat and prepare without paranoia should an ordinary day turn extraordinary." A blue "SELECT" button is positioned at the bottom right of the card.

To begin the first module of your training, click on the “Launch” button to the right of the image of the first module. For optimal viewing of the training, use either Google Chrome or Internet Explorer.
